HCPT Trust Mass

Congratulations to Central Services for a wonderful Mass this morning. It was a very prayerful and memorable ceremony with a beautifully acted out Gospel telling the story of the Good Samaritan.

Bishop John's homily reminded us that we are Jesus' love made flesh in our world, that he loves each of us and asks us to "come and follow him".

It was wonderful to see Br. Michael at today's Mass looking so well with a great big smile when introduced to everyone. We wish him continued good health and congratulations on creating such a wonderful organisation.

Congratulations to musicians and singers under the excellent direction of Stephen Horseman. The hymns wonderfully enhanced the service.

Our turn next!!

Grotto Mass

Takes place Friday morning at 8.30am. All welcome to share in this special Mass remembering deceased guests, carers and friends of The Trust.

IHCPT Merchandise

The shop will be open until 6pm on Friday and will NOT open on Saturday so please get down now to do your shopping with us.

- Buy-A-Brick for Kilrane. For €10 you can dedicate a brick in the name of someone you love and it will be displayed in our new house in Kilrane – forever!
- Kilrane is only a 10 minute drive away from Rosslare ferryport so all our HCPT friends are welcome to use our new 17 bed respite facility which will open this Summer.
- Mass cards are now available.

Risk Assessment

There are still a couple of groups who have not returned their Fire Drill, Risk Assessment and Room Sharing Record forms. It is absolutely essential that these forms are completed and returned to HQ as soon as possible and no later than Friday 5pm.

No Smoking Policy

Please remember that the Trust operates a no smoking policy in front of the young people in our care.

Lost Property

- Blue jacket left at Nurses & Doctors meeting in Alba Hotel last night.
- A part of a wheelchair from the second Dublin flight.
- Both can be collected from the Hemi.

Sunshine

Great to see the sun is back and looks like it will last for today and until we go on Saturday.
